

K-LOVE keeps me informed of events and services that build up and support traditional family values. The programming offers a music selection that otherwise would not be available in northern California. If KLOVE were not present in this area, there would be no radio media influence whose program content and format spoke against drugs, gangs, violence etc. KLOVE's service is in the public interest in that it provides an alternative to the standard radio programming found today.